

Portland Expo

---

WHERE Portland, Oregon

WHEN March, July, and October

WHAT This is no sleepy market—people travel far and wide to buy and sell here. With 1,350 to 1,800 dealers, these shows use a Keyword Kiosk to direct you to the booths selling what you're after, whether it's fifties rhinestone-encrusted eyewear, Art Deco barware, or midcentury modern furniture. 503-282-0877 or palmerwirfs.com/portland

WHERE TO STAY The hip and Zen-like Hotel Lucia, in downtown Portland, will set you up well for long days at the Expo. Treat yourself to room service from the popular Thai restaurant Typhoon! 877-225-1717 or hotellucia.com

WHERE TO EAT The newly opened Gotham Bldg Tavern, the third jewel in Portland's Ripe restaurant group (the others are Family Supper and Clarklewis), reinvents American tavern fare. 503-235-2294

WHILE YOU'RE THERE Recognized as one of the finest outside of Japan, the Japanese Garden, with its stones, ponds, and plants, spans more than five acres and five separate gardens, promising tranquillity, reflection, and spectacular views of downtown Portland and Mount Hood in the distance. 503-223-1321 or www.japanesegarden.com

OrganicStyle.com 90 June 2005

“Treasure Troves: Organic Style's Favorite Flea Markets”

by Maggie Pouncey

Organic Style

June 2005

